

Bio – Mattias Pierrou

Mattias Pierrou is an experienced IP attorney with a particular focus on patents, including commercial aspects and dispute resolution, as well as procurement and oppositions. His technical areas of expertise are general physics, wireless communications, computer-implemented inventions, audio and video coding, fiber optics, lasers, sensor technology, measuring and calibration instruments, and the like. Mattias is also a specialist in European patent law and a renowned speaker and mentor.