

Coleen Morrison BIO

Coleen Morrison is a Trademark lawyer with a pre-law background in Biological Oceanography, in our Intellectual Property Group at Perley-Robertson, Hill & McDougall LLP. Coleen has over 20 years of experience representing clients across all areas of trademark practice as well as copyright, industrial design and domain name law. Prior to joining the firm, Coleen was a Managing Partner at the Canadian Office of a multi-national IP boutique firm.

Coleen has represented and advised parties in more than 1000 trademark opposition cases, including being retained by other Canadian firms for isolated tasks such as hearings and cross-examinations. She has also filed and prosecuted more than 5000 trademark applications since her call to the Ontario Bar in 1996. Coleen also has extensive international experience, working with foreign associates including overseeing large-scale foreign filing programmes. A frequent speaker at Intellectual Property conferences and seminars around the world, Coleen is also the President FICPI Canada. Coleen delights in her role as President of FICPI's Work and Study Commission (CET) comprising 8 groups covering different areas of Intellectual Property, with more than 400 IP attorneys throughout the world. Coleen is also the Vice Chair of the Intellectual Property Institute of Canada's Trademark Group.

Coleen is a recognized expert on Intellectual Property matters including being a Managing Intellectual Property IP Star and a Who's Who Legal Global and National Expert on trademark law. Clients have published praise for Coleen for being "excellent to work with" and for the "clear and practical method underlying her work". Coleen is the right choice to help protect your important intellectual property assets.
