A MASTERCLASS IN TRADE MARK OPPOSITIONS

MELBOURNE 15-16 June 2021

Following on from previous successful masterclasses in other areas of practice the Academy of Education is proud to present a masterclass dedicated to Trade Mark opposition practice and procedure. The Masterclass will be held in Melbourne on the 15 and 16 June 2021. The Masterclass will also be held in both Sydney and Adelaide in the second half of the year on dates to be advised.

Why attend this Masterclass?

The Trade Marks Opposition Masterclass is a well-crafted session designed to allow trade marks attorneys and trade mark focused lawyers to sharpen their opposition practice. The day and a half course will traverse important aspects of trade marks opposition practice with a case study to put learnings into practice. The course will provide a unique opportunity to interact with experienced practitioners in the area to hone your skills and provide you with insights into the best strategic approaches to resolving trade mark oppositions.

About the facilitators

The Masterclass will be facilitated by Ian Horak, Siobhan Ryan and Andrew Sykes. Each of the facilitators are well respected barristers and experienced Counsel who regularly appear in trade mark opposition and appeal proceedings. Together they have over 50 years' experience in conducting trade mark oppositions, appeals and trade mark litigation. The practitioners have extensive knowledge of trade mark law and practice and intend to bring that experience to the fore in this class so that you can learn the best strategies and tactics for resolving trade mark oppositions.

Who should attend?

The Masterclass is designed for IPTA Members who are registered trade mark attorneys and want to improve the effectiveness of their trade mark opposition practice. The class will assume a good knowledge of the general principles of trade mark law and their application. It will best suit those who have had some trade mark opposition experience, although previous opposition experience is not essential. Those who infrequently deal with oppositions or wish to deal with oppositions on a more frequent basis in the future are encouraged to attend. If you are not currently an IPTA member please contact the Secretariat. Numbers are limited and attendees are encouraged to register as soon possible.

At IPTA we are eager to empower you with the tools you need to enhance your already remarkable skills.

ABOUT THE FACILITATORS

Ian Horak

Ian is a barrister at the Victorian Bar. He was first admitted as a lawyer in 1999 and signed the bar roll in 2003. He is a registered Australian Patent and Trade Marks Attorney. Ian also holds a First Class Honours degree in Chemical Engineering. Ian practises exclusively in intellectual property law and regularly appears before the Federal Court of Australia and the Australian Trade Marks Office. He has appeared in many oppositions, appeals and trade mark infringement matters over his career, first as a trade marks attorney and lawyer and then as Counsel. Since joining the bar he has been consistently ranked in publications including Best Lawyers, Doyle's Guide and World Trade Mark Review. Ian is also a Senior Fellow at Monash University's Law School where he is the Chief Examiner and lecturer in postgraduate subjects on intellectual property and trade mark practice. He is a co-author with Professor Mark Davison of the seminal trade mark publication Shanahan's, Australian Trade Marks Law and Passing Off (5th and 6th edition).

Siobhan Ryan

Siobhan is an experienced intellectual property lawyer - specialising in trade marks and copyright. Siobhan also advises and appears in trade practices, passing off and designs matters. She practices in all Federal and State Courts. Siobhan is a registered trade mark attorney and regularly appears before the Registrar of Trade Marks in oppositions and registrability cases. Siobhan has been consistently recognised in the Intellectual Property category in Best Lawyers, Doyles Guide and the World Trademark Review's, Leading Trade Mark Professionals. Siobhan is a nationally accredited mediator (NMAS) and is the President of the Trans-Tasman IP Attorneys Disciplinary Tribunal. She is an editor of the Intellectual Property Reports and an author for Lahore, Patents, Trade Marks & Related Rights.
